

I write to protest Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air an anti-John Kerry documentary days before the coming election, and to require their affiliate to do so.

Their decision to do so is deeply troubling. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge and their use of them for biased electioneering is unconscionable.

Thank you.